

Daily Appeal. BY McCLANAHAN & DILL. GRENADA, MISS.

SATURDAY EVENING, JULY 5, 1862.

GAINING HIS POINT.

A Northern dispatch to the Memphis press, dated July 3d, after claiming that Richmond had fallen and McClellan was victorious, then stating that the news "is discarded this evening," goes on to give what comports it may, to the Federal, by stating that after a hard-fought battle it is understood that McClellan has gained his point.

THE APPEAL ABROAD.

We find the following paragraph in a letter from France, dated Paris, June 6th, written to and published in the Chicago Times of the 30th ultimo:

Can you, or any one, let us loyal citizens abroad, know why it is that extracts from the Memphis Appeal are sent to us by telegraph as a true history of the state of affairs at home?

Gen. Butler's role in New Orleans is represented as something akin to the Jacobinism of France, and this account is sent to us as a true history of the world.

No movements of Federal troops is mentioned. The Chicago Times expresses the hope "that the 'Pathfinder,' Vermont, has now subsided forever."

The same journal says that the loss of the Federal forces in the fight before Richmond on the 29th ult., was variously estimated at from 250 to 1000. Rather indolent.

A meeting of the conservative members of Congress has been held at which the Declaration was read "that the States, upon the suppression of the rebellion, should repossess and exercise the rights secured to them by the Constitution."

Referring to the news that an effort was about to be made to expel Senator Simmons, of Rhode Island, from the Federal Senate, the Chicago Times says it ought to be done, "but there is very great doubt whether it will be. Criminals, as a general thing, are not very strong denouncers of crime."

Private advices received at the North state that the St. Charles (the principal hotel in New Orleans) is to be re-opened for the entertainment of the public.

A party of thirty Englishmen recently arrived at Quebec, under the auspices of a swindling company in London, which advertised to carry them across the continent in comfortable carriages for the moderate sum of forty guineas per head.

The New York Evening Post says that since the 1st of February there have been fifty-four Union victories, or one for every six days.

The commercial editor of the New York Nation estimates that the total losses of the nation and individuals, traceable directly and indirectly to the war, cannot be less than ten thousand millions of dollars.

The steamer "Etna," which sailed from New York for Europe on the 25th ult., took out $2,325,000 in specie.

The New York Herald's special, Nashville, June 28th, says: "A special conference of Clergymen, before Gov. Johnson, all declined to take the oath of allegiance."

Notice.—Sabbath school will be reopened in the Baptist church to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. All interested will please attend.

MEMORIAL.—See the card of Dr. C. Williams, secretary of Memphis, and who has located in this city, in another column.

Hon. G. A. Henry, Confederate States Senator from Tennessee, was at Jackson, Miss., yesterday.

The Union Herald at Memphis has been enlarged, and is now styled the Memphis Union Appeal. We desire this fact known, so that none of its abolition incitements may, when copied abroad, be attributed to the old management of the APPEAL office.

SAD ACCIDENT.—We regret to learn that by the bursting of a gun in one of the companies attached to Major Ward's battalion of artillery, now camped near this city, Mr. Thos. Wilcox, a member of the company, was instantly killed.

Mr. W. was one of the gunners, and formerly lived at Oakland. He was struck by one of the pieces of the exploded gun, and his head severed from his body.

SLAVE TRADING.—The Savannah Republican says: "We are informed by a citizen of New Orleans, a gentleman of high standing, who recently arrived from Nassau, that a cargo of Carolina and Georgia slaves were recently taken from Port Royal by a Yankee vessel, carried to Cardenas in Cuba, and there sold to the planters of that island."

We are also informed that the Spanish consul at Charleston has received positive information of the transaction. The report comes very direct, and we have no reason to doubt its correctness.

It is understood that the order of Butler, at New Orleans, by which all foreigners having resided five years in the United States without having claimed or received the protection of their government two months previous to the publication of the aforesaid order, will be obliged to take the oath of allegiance as citizens of the United States, and will cease, in consequence, to be citizens of their own country, has been made the object of strong remonstrances on the part of the foreign consuls at New Orleans to their respective ambassadors at Washington.

A deserter from one of the rounds Tennessee regiments, who has been identified among the Tennesseeers in the Federal service. A large number are kept at the guard from the apprehension that they will desert. The same authority says, that since the formation of the Tennessee regiments near 1000 have deserted.

The deserter confirms the report given several days since, that the Federal forces now in Powell's camp, under date of the 28th ult., Washington street was swarmed with rammers all day long. Bloody work at Richmond is generally believed to have occurred."

Baker, formerly of the Nashville Banner, who was long suspected as a traitor to the South, has turned up a Unionist. He was a Yankee importer to Tennessee.

The only dispatch we have seen in the Northern press, relative to the great battle before Richmond, is the following allusion in the Washington correspondence of the Cincinnati Gazette, under date of the 28th ult.: "Washington street was swarmed with rammers all day long. Bloody work at Richmond is generally believed to have occurred."

The only dispatch we have seen in the Northern press, relative to the great battle before Richmond, is the following allusion in the Washington correspondence of the Cincinnati Gazette, under date of the 28th ult.: "Washington street was swarmed with rammers all day long. Bloody work at Richmond is generally believed to have occurred."

The only dispatch we have seen in the Northern press, relative to the great battle before Richmond, is the following allusion in the Washington correspondence of the Cincinnati Gazette, under date of the 28th ult.: "Washington street was swarmed with rammers all day long. Bloody work at Richmond is generally believed to have occurred."

The only dispatch we have seen in the Northern press, relative to the great battle before Richmond, is the following allusion in the Washington correspondence of the Cincinnati Gazette, under date of the 28th ult.: "Washington street was swarmed with rammers all day long. Bloody work at Richmond is generally believed to have occurred."

LETTER FROM RICHMOND.

Special Correspondence of the Memphis Appeal. RICHMOND, June 27, 1862.

The great battle, so long and so feraciously expected for the defense of the capital, was begun yesterday and has been continued to-day with great ardor, and so far as we have learned with the most signal advantage to our cause. Though there was a conviction, amounting almost to certainty on the public mind, that the combat would commence on the Chickahominy before twelve o'clock, very few civilians endeavored and none were permitted to enter the park, and all who had gone out to witness the combat were stopped by the pickets and came back the victims of perspiration and disappointment. For himself, your correspondent did not attempt to enter the forbidden ground, well knowing the difficulties which would attend the effort, and he is, therefore, under the necessity of giving a hurried account of what has been accomplished as he gathered it from the lips of others, having sought his information as much as possible from those who had returned from the battle.

An early hour yesterday morning, General Jackson left Richmond with a considerable force for the purpose of getting behind the enemy, with the intention of giving the signal to our forces in front when he should be in position for the combined attack, but having been compelled to make a considerable detour to reach the point of his destination, he did not give the signal at the expected moment, and Gen. A. P. Hill, impatient of the delay, sent couriers to inform Gen. Lee and old Stonewall of his immediate purpose to cross the Chickahominy. This led to the famous battle of the 30th ult., in which the Federal army was completely routed and drove back a large force of the enemy, taking as it is reported, a battery of several pieces of artillery. Upon reaching the neighborhood of Mechanicsville, they attacked the enemy's works in the rear at the same time that Gen. D. H. Hill's division assailed it directly from the other side of the river. Here an obstinate and bloody fight ensued. The enemy's position was very formidable, and they had strengthened it by well-constructed fortifications on which heavy guns had been mounted. For two hours a furious combat was maintained between the hostile parties, when the order was given to charge, and the advance was made nearly simultaneously from front and rear with severe loss but with success, the Yankees abandoning their intrenchments and leaving all their pieces in our hands. This was about half past seven in the evening. I regret that as yet I have not been able to ascertain which of the infantry regiments were most conspicuous for gallantry in the rush upon the Mechanicsville fortifications.

It was almost a desperate enterprise, for the Federal batteries commanded the road and the bridge for more than three-quarters of a mile, and a high hill had been surmounted at a disadvantage by the Chickahominy was within gunshot of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs.

The Argus and Avalanche here, we learn, both been suspended by the Federal authorities. The cause of their offending was a disposition to publish the reports of the battle before Richmond, as published in the Southern press. The arbitrary officials knew full well it would not do to give the news of our glorious victory a complete ventilation at Memphis—hence this last act of tyranny.

A new paper has been started in Memphis, to be called the Evening Commercial. The old city council held an adjourned meeting on the evening of the 1st. Present, Hon. John Park, Mayor—Chairman Merrill, Ames, Ayres, Greenlaw, Farmer, Townsend, Holbert, Robinson and Voltolina. The Argus was reported city printer. The report of the City Controller shows the financial condition of the treasury at the end of the year to be as follows:

A comparison of the annual statement of this, the 30th ult., with that of the 30th ult., will show ample grounds for congratulating you upon the judicious and eminently successful administration of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs.

The Argus and Avalanche here, we learn, both been suspended by the Federal authorities. The cause of their offending was a disposition to publish the reports of the battle before Richmond, as published in the Southern press. The arbitrary officials knew full well it would not do to give the news of our glorious victory a complete ventilation at Memphis—hence this last act of tyranny.

A new paper has been started in Memphis, to be called the Evening Commercial. The old city council held an adjourned meeting on the evening of the 1st. Present, Hon. John Park, Mayor—Chairman Merrill, Ames, Ayres, Greenlaw, Farmer, Townsend, Holbert, Robinson and Voltolina. The Argus was reported city printer. The report of the City Controller shows the financial condition of the treasury at the end of the year to be as follows:

A comparison of the annual statement of this, the 30th ult., with that of the 30th ult., will show ample grounds for congratulating you upon the judicious and eminently successful administration of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs.

The Argus and Avalanche here, we learn, both been suspended by the Federal authorities. The cause of their offending was a disposition to publish the reports of the battle before Richmond, as published in the Southern press. The arbitrary officials knew full well it would not do to give the news of our glorious victory a complete ventilation at Memphis—hence this last act of tyranny.

A new paper has been started in Memphis, to be called the Evening Commercial. The old city council held an adjourned meeting on the evening of the 1st. Present, Hon. John Park, Mayor—Chairman Merrill, Ames, Ayres, Greenlaw, Farmer, Townsend, Holbert, Robinson and Voltolina. The Argus was reported city printer. The report of the City Controller shows the financial condition of the treasury at the end of the year to be as follows:

A comparison of the annual statement of this, the 30th ult., with that of the 30th ult., will show ample grounds for congratulating you upon the judicious and eminently successful administration of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs.

The Argus and Avalanche here, we learn, both been suspended by the Federal authorities. The cause of their offending was a disposition to publish the reports of the battle before Richmond, as published in the Southern press. The arbitrary officials knew full well it would not do to give the news of our glorious victory a complete ventilation at Memphis—hence this last act of tyranny.

A new paper has been started in Memphis, to be called the Evening Commercial. The old city council held an adjourned meeting on the evening of the 1st. Present, Hon. John Park, Mayor—Chairman Merrill, Ames, Ayres, Greenlaw, Farmer, Townsend, Holbert, Robinson and Voltolina. The Argus was reported city printer. The report of the City Controller shows the financial condition of the treasury at the end of the year to be as follows:

A comparison of the annual statement of this, the 30th ult., with that of the 30th ult., will show ample grounds for congratulating you upon the judicious and eminently successful administration of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs.

The Argus and Avalanche here, we learn, both been suspended by the Federal authorities. The cause of their offending was a disposition to publish the reports of the battle before Richmond, as published in the Southern press. The arbitrary officials knew full well it would not do to give the news of our glorious victory a complete ventilation at Memphis—hence this last act of tyranny.

A new paper has been started in Memphis, to be called the Evening Commercial. The old city council held an adjourned meeting on the evening of the 1st. Present, Hon. John Park, Mayor—Chairman Merrill, Ames, Ayres, Greenlaw, Farmer, Townsend, Holbert, Robinson and Voltolina. The Argus was reported city printer. The report of the City Controller shows the financial condition of the treasury at the end of the year to be as follows:

A comparison of the annual statement of this, the 30th ult., with that of the 30th ult., will show ample grounds for congratulating you upon the judicious and eminently successful administration of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs.

The Argus and Avalanche here, we learn, both been suspended by the Federal authorities. The cause of their offending was a disposition to publish the reports of the battle before Richmond, as published in the Southern press. The arbitrary officials knew full well it would not do to give the news of our glorious victory a complete ventilation at Memphis—hence this last act of tyranny.

A new paper has been started in Memphis, to be called the Evening Commercial. The old city council held an adjourned meeting on the evening of the 1st. Present, Hon. John Park, Mayor—Chairman Merrill, Ames, Ayres, Greenlaw, Farmer, Townsend, Holbert, Robinson and Voltolina. The Argus was reported city printer. The report of the City Controller shows the financial condition of the treasury at the end of the year to be as follows:

A comparison of the annual statement of this, the 30th ult., with that of the 30th ult., will show ample grounds for congratulating you upon the judicious and eminently successful administration of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs.

The Argus and Avalanche here, we learn, both been suspended by the Federal authorities. The cause of their offending was a disposition to publish the reports of the battle before Richmond, as published in the Southern press. The arbitrary officials knew full well it would not do to give the news of our glorious victory a complete ventilation at Memphis—hence this last act of tyranny.

A new paper has been started in Memphis, to be called the Evening Commercial. The old city council held an adjourned meeting on the evening of the 1st. Present, Hon. John Park, Mayor—Chairman Merrill, Ames, Ayres, Greenlaw, Farmer, Townsend, Holbert, Robinson and Voltolina. The Argus was reported city printer. The report of the City Controller shows the financial condition of the treasury at the end of the year to be as follows:

A comparison of the annual statement of this, the 30th ult., with that of the 30th ult., will show ample grounds for congratulating you upon the judicious and eminently successful administration of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs.

The Argus and Avalanche here, we learn, both been suspended by the Federal authorities. The cause of their offending was a disposition to publish the reports of the battle before Richmond, as published in the Southern press. The arbitrary officials knew full well it would not do to give the news of our glorious victory a complete ventilation at Memphis—hence this last act of tyranny.

A new paper has been started in Memphis, to be called the Evening Commercial. The old city council held an adjourned meeting on the evening of the 1st. Present, Hon. John Park, Mayor—Chairman Merrill, Ames, Ayres, Greenlaw, Farmer, Townsend, Holbert, Robinson and Voltolina. The Argus was reported city printer. The report of the City Controller shows the financial condition of the treasury at the end of the year to be as follows:

A comparison of the annual statement of this, the 30th ult., with that of the 30th ult., will show ample grounds for congratulating you upon the judicious and eminently successful administration of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs.

The Argus and Avalanche here, we learn, both been suspended by the Federal authorities. The cause of their offending was a disposition to publish the reports of the battle before Richmond, as published in the Southern press. The arbitrary officials knew full well it would not do to give the news of our glorious victory a complete ventilation at Memphis—hence this last act of tyranny.

A new paper has been started in Memphis, to be called the Evening Commercial. The old city council held an adjourned meeting on the evening of the 1st. Present, Hon. John Park, Mayor—Chairman Merrill, Ames, Ayres, Greenlaw, Farmer, Townsend, Holbert, Robinson and Voltolina. The Argus was reported city printer. The report of the City Controller shows the financial condition of the treasury at the end of the year to be as follows:

A comparison of the annual statement of this, the 30th ult., with that of the 30th ult., will show ample grounds for congratulating you upon the judicious and eminently successful administration of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs.

The Argus and Avalanche here, we learn, both been suspended by the Federal authorities. The cause of their offending was a disposition to publish the reports of the battle before Richmond, as published in the Southern press. The arbitrary officials knew full well it would not do to give the news of our glorious victory a complete ventilation at Memphis—hence this last act of tyranny.

A new paper has been started in Memphis, to be called the Evening Commercial. The old city council held an adjourned meeting on the evening of the 1st. Present, Hon. John Park, Mayor—Chairman Merrill, Ames, Ayres, Greenlaw, Farmer, Townsend, Holbert, Robinson and Voltolina. The Argus was reported city printer. The report of the City Controller shows the financial condition of the treasury at the end of the year to be as follows:

A comparison of the annual statement of this, the 30th ult., with that of the 30th ult., will show ample grounds for congratulating you upon the judicious and eminently successful administration of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs.

The Argus and Avalanche here, we learn, both been suspended by the Federal authorities. The cause of their offending was a disposition to publish the reports of the battle before Richmond, as published in the Southern press. The arbitrary officials knew full well it would not do to give the news of our glorious victory a complete ventilation at Memphis—hence this last act of tyranny.

A new paper has been started in Memphis, to be called the Evening Commercial. The old city council held an adjourned meeting on the evening of the 1st. Present, Hon. John Park, Mayor—Chairman Merrill, Ames, Ayres, Greenlaw, Farmer, Townsend, Holbert, Robinson and Voltolina. The Argus was reported city printer. The report of the City Controller shows the financial condition of the treasury at the end of the year to be as follows:

A comparison of the annual statement of this, the 30th ult., with that of the 30th ult., will show ample grounds for congratulating you upon the judicious and eminently successful administration of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs.

LETTER FROM RICHMOND.

Special Correspondence of the Memphis Appeal. RICHMOND, June 27, 1862.

The great battle, so long and so feraciously expected for the defense of the capital, was begun yesterday and has been continued to-day with great ardor, and so far as we have learned with the most signal advantage to our cause. Though there was a conviction, amounting almost to certainty on the public mind, that the combat would commence on the Chickahominy before twelve o'clock, very few civilians endeavored and none were permitted to enter the park, and all who had gone out to witness the combat were stopped by the pickets and came back the victims of perspiration and disappointment. For himself, your correspondent did not attempt to enter the forbidden ground, well knowing the difficulties which would attend the effort, and he is, therefore, under the necessity of giving a hurried account of what has been accomplished as he gathered it from the lips of others, having sought his information as much as possible from those who had returned from the battle.

An early hour yesterday morning, General Jackson left Richmond with a considerable force for the purpose of getting behind the enemy, with the intention of giving the signal to our forces in front when he should be in position for the combined attack, but having been compelled to make a considerable detour to reach the point of his destination, he did not give the signal at the expected moment, and Gen. A. P. Hill, impatient of the delay, sent couriers to inform Gen. Lee and old Stonewall of his immediate purpose to cross the Chickahominy. This led to the famous battle of the 30th ult., in which the Federal army was completely routed and drove back a large force of the enemy, taking as it is reported, a battery of several pieces of artillery. Upon reaching the neighborhood of Mechanicsville, they attacked the enemy's works in the rear at the same time that Gen. D. H. Hill's division assailed it directly from the other side of the river. Here an obstinate and bloody fight ensued. The enemy's position was very formidable, and they had strengthened it by well-constructed fortifications on which heavy guns had been mounted. For two hours a furious combat was maintained between the hostile parties, when the order was given to charge, and the advance was made nearly simultaneously from front and rear with severe loss but with success, the Yankees abandoning their intrenchments and leaving all their pieces in our hands. This was about half past seven in the evening. I regret that as yet I have not been able to ascertain which of the infantry regiments were most conspicuous for gallantry in the rush upon the Mechanicsville fortifications.

It was almost a desperate enterprise, for the Federal batteries commanded the road and the bridge for more than three-quarters of a mile, and a high hill had been surmounted at a disadvantage by the Chickahominy was within gunshot of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs.

The Argus and Avalanche here, we learn, both been suspended by the Federal authorities. The cause of their offending was a disposition to publish the reports of the battle before Richmond, as published in the Southern press. The arbitrary officials knew full well it would not do to give the news of our glorious victory a complete ventilation at Memphis—hence this last act of tyranny.

A new paper has been started in Memphis, to be called the Evening Commercial. The old city council held an adjourned meeting on the evening of the 1st. Present, Hon. John Park, Mayor—Chairman Merrill, Ames, Ayres, Greenlaw, Farmer, Townsend, Holbert, Robinson and Voltolina. The Argus was reported city printer. The report of the City Controller shows the financial condition of the treasury at the end of the year to be as follows:

A comparison of the annual statement of this, the 30th ult., with that of the 30th ult., will show ample grounds for congratulating you upon the judicious and eminently successful administration of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs.

The Argus and Avalanche here, we learn, both been suspended by the Federal authorities. The cause of their offending was a disposition to publish the reports of the battle before Richmond, as published in the Southern press. The arbitrary officials knew full well it would not do to give the news of our glorious victory a complete ventilation at Memphis—hence this last act of tyranny.

A new paper has been started in Memphis, to be called the Evening Commercial. The old city council held an adjourned meeting on the evening of the 1st. Present, Hon. John Park, Mayor—Chairman Merrill, Ames, Ayres, Greenlaw, Farmer, Townsend, Holbert, Robinson and Voltolina. The Argus was reported city printer. The report of the City Controller shows the financial condition of the treasury at the end of the year to be as follows:

A comparison of the annual statement of this, the 30th ult., with that of the 30th ult., will show ample grounds for congratulating you upon the judicious and eminently successful administration of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs.

The Argus and Avalanche here, we learn, both been suspended by the Federal authorities. The cause of their offending was a disposition to publish the reports of the battle before Richmond, as published in the Southern press. The arbitrary officials knew full well it would not do to give the news of our glorious victory a complete ventilation at Memphis—hence this last act of tyranny.

A new paper has been started in Memphis, to be called the Evening Commercial. The old city council held an adjourned meeting on the evening of the 1st. Present, Hon. John Park, Mayor—Chairman Merrill, Ames, Ayres, Greenlaw, Farmer, Townsend, Holbert, Robinson and Voltolina. The Argus was reported city printer. The report of the City Controller shows the financial condition of the treasury at the end of the year to be as follows:

A comparison of the annual statement of this, the 30th ult., with that of the 30th ult., will show ample grounds for congratulating you upon the judicious and eminently successful administration of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs.

The Argus and Avalanche here, we learn, both been suspended by the Federal authorities. The cause of their offending was a disposition to publish the reports of the battle before Richmond, as published in the Southern press. The arbitrary officials knew full well it would not do to give the news of our glorious victory a complete ventilation at Memphis—hence this last act of tyranny.

A new paper has been started in Memphis, to be called the Evening Commercial. The old city council held an adjourned meeting on the evening of the 1st. Present, Hon. John Park, Mayor—Chairman Merrill, Ames, Ayres, Greenlaw, Farmer, Townsend, Holbert, Robinson and Voltolina. The Argus was reported city printer. The report of the City Controller shows the financial condition of the treasury at the end of the year to be as follows:

A comparison of the annual statement of this, the 30th ult., with that of the 30th ult., will show ample grounds for congratulating you upon the judicious and eminently successful administration of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs.

The Argus and Avalanche here, we learn, both been suspended by the Federal authorities. The cause of their offending was a disposition to publish the reports of the battle before Richmond, as published in the Southern press. The arbitrary officials knew full well it would not do to give the news of our glorious victory a complete ventilation at Memphis—hence this last act of tyranny.

A new paper has been started in Memphis, to be called the Evening Commercial. The old city council held an adjourned meeting on the evening of the 1st. Present, Hon. John Park, Mayor—Chairman Merrill, Ames, Ayres, Greenlaw, Farmer, Townsend, Holbert, Robinson and Voltolina. The Argus was reported city printer. The report of the City Controller shows the financial condition of the treasury at the end of the year to be as follows:

A comparison of the annual statement of this, the 30th ult., with that of the 30th ult., will show ample grounds for congratulating you upon the judicious and eminently successful administration of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs.

The Argus and Avalanche here, we learn, both been suspended by the Federal authorities. The cause of their offending was a disposition to publish the reports of the battle before Richmond, as published in the Southern press. The arbitrary officials knew full well it would not do to give the news of our glorious victory a complete ventilation at Memphis—hence this last act of tyranny.

A new paper has been started in Memphis, to be called the Evening Commercial. The old city council held an adjourned meeting on the evening of the 1st. Present, Hon. John Park, Mayor—Chairman Merrill, Ames, Ayres, Greenlaw, Farmer, Townsend, Holbert, Robinson and Voltolina. The Argus was reported city printer. The report of the City Controller shows the financial condition of the treasury at the end of the year to be as follows:

A comparison of the annual statement of this, the 30th ult., with that of the 30th ult., will show ample grounds for congratulating you upon the judicious and eminently successful administration of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs.

The Argus and Avalanche here, we learn, both been suspended by the Federal authorities. The cause of their offending was a disposition to publish the reports of the battle before Richmond, as published in the Southern press. The arbitrary officials knew full well it would not do to give the news of our glorious victory a complete ventilation at Memphis—hence this last act of tyranny.

A new paper has been started in Memphis, to be called the Evening Commercial. The old city council held an adjourned meeting on the evening of the 1st. Present, Hon. John Park, Mayor—Chairman Merrill, Ames, Ayres, Greenlaw, Farmer, Townsend, Holbert, Robinson and Voltolina. The Argus was reported city printer. The report of the City Controller shows the financial condition of the treasury at the end of the year to be as follows:

A comparison of the annual statement of this, the 30th ult., with that of the 30th ult., will show ample grounds for congratulating you upon the judicious and eminently successful administration of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs.

The Argus and Avalanche here, we learn, both been suspended by the Federal authorities. The cause of their offending was a disposition to publish the reports of the battle before Richmond, as published in the Southern press. The arbitrary officials knew full well it would not do to give the news of our glorious victory a complete ventilation at Memphis—hence this last act of tyranny.

A new paper has been started in Memphis, to be called the Evening Commercial. The old city council held an adjourned meeting on the evening of the 1st. Present, Hon. John Park, Mayor—Chairman Merrill, Ames, Ayres, Greenlaw, Farmer, Townsend, Holbert, Robinson and Voltolina. The Argus was reported city printer. The report of the City Controller shows the financial condition of the treasury at the end of the year to be as follows:

A comparison of the annual statement of this, the 30th ult., with that of the 30th ult., will show ample grounds for congratulating you upon the judicious and eminently successful administration of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs.

The Argus and Avalanche here, we learn, both been suspended by the Federal authorities. The cause of their offending was a disposition to publish the reports of the battle before Richmond, as published in the Southern press. The arbitrary officials knew full well it would not do to give the news of our glorious victory a complete ventilation at Memphis—hence this last act of tyranny.

A new paper has been started in Memphis, to be called the Evening Commercial. The old city council held an adjourned meeting on the evening of the 1st. Present, Hon. John Park, Mayor—Chairman Merrill, Ames, Ayres, Greenlaw, Farmer, Townsend, Holbert, Robinson and Voltolina. The Argus was reported city printer. The report of the City Controller shows the financial condition of the treasury at the end of the year to be as follows:

A comparison of the annual statement of this, the 30th ult., with that of the 30th ult., will show ample grounds for congratulating you upon the judicious and eminently successful administration of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs.

The Argus and Avalanche here, we learn, both been suspended by the Federal authorities. The cause of their offending was a disposition to publish the reports of the battle before Richmond, as published in the Southern press. The arbitrary officials knew full well it would not do to give the news of our glorious victory a complete ventilation at Memphis—hence this last act of tyranny.

A new paper has been started in Memphis, to be called the Evening Commercial. The old city council held an adjourned meeting on the evening of the 1st. Present, Hon. John Park, Mayor—Chairman Merrill, Ames, Ayres, Greenlaw, Farmer, Townsend, Holbert, Robinson and Voltolina. The Argus was reported city printer. The report of the City Controller shows the financial condition of the treasury at the end of the year to be as follows:

A comparison of the annual statement of this, the 30th ult., with that of the 30th ult., will show ample grounds for congratulating you upon the judicious and eminently successful administration of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs.

The Argus and Avalanche here, we learn, both been suspended by the Federal authorities. The cause of their offending was a disposition to publish the reports of the battle before Richmond, as published in the Southern press. The arbitrary officials knew full well it would not do to give the news of our glorious victory a complete ventilation at Memphis—hence this last act of tyranny.

A new paper has been started in Memphis, to be called the Evening Commercial. The old city council held an adjourned meeting on the evening of the 1st. Present, Hon. John Park, Mayor—Chairman Merrill, Ames, Ayres, Greenlaw, Farmer, Townsend, Holbert, Robinson and Voltolina. The Argus was reported city printer. The report of the City Controller shows the financial condition of the treasury at the end of the year to be as follows:

A comparison of the annual statement of this, the 30th ult., with that of the 30th ult., will show ample grounds for congratulating you upon the judicious and eminently successful administration of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs. There has been paid of the city's affairs.

LETTER FROM RICHMOND.

Special Correspondence of the Memphis Appeal. RICHMOND, June 27, 1862.

The great battle, so long and so feraciously expected for the defense of the capital, was begun yesterday and has been continued to-day with great ardor, and so far as we have learned with the most signal advantage to our cause. Though there was a conviction, amounting almost to certainty on the public mind, that the combat would commence on the Chickahominy before twelve o'clock, very few civilians endeavored and none were permitted to enter the park, and all who had gone out to witness the combat were stopped by the pickets and came back the victims of perspiration and disappointment. For himself, your correspondent did not attempt to enter the forbidden ground, well knowing the difficulties which would attend the effort, and he is, therefore, under the necessity of giving a hurried account of what has been accomplished as he gathered it from the lips of others, having sought his information as much as possible from those who had returned from the battle.

An early hour yesterday morning, General Jackson left Richmond with a considerable force for the purpose of getting behind the enemy, with the intention of giving the signal to our forces in front when he should be in position for the combined attack, but having been compelled to make a considerable detour to reach the point of his destination, he did not give the signal at the expected moment, and Gen. A. P. Hill, impatient of the delay, sent couriers to inform Gen. Lee and old Stonewall of his immediate purpose to cross the Chickahominy. This led to the famous battle of the 30th ult., in which the Federal army was completely routed and drove back a large force of the enemy, taking as it is reported, a battery of several pieces of artillery. Upon reaching the neighborhood of Mechanicsville, they attacked the enemy's works in the rear at the same time that Gen. D. H. Hill's division assailed it directly from the other side of the river. Here an obstinate and bloody fight ensued. The enemy's position was very formidable, and they had strengthened it by well-constructed fortifications on which heavy guns had been mounted. For two hours a furious combat was maintained between the hostile parties, when the order was given to charge, and the advance was made nearly simultaneously from front and rear with severe loss but with success, the Yankees abandoning their intrenchments and leaving all their pieces in our hands. This was about half past seven